

WEEKLY EXPOSITOR.

JAS. A. MENZIES, Publisher.

In the Best Interests of the Community in which we live.

FOR THE RIGHT AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Vol. X. No. 37.

YALE, St. Clair County, Mich., FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1892.

Price: $1.00 per Year.

WE HAVE Just Launched Out

On our second years business with our store

JAMMED FULL OF NEW GOODS!

Our past year's business, conducted on the ready pay system, has been a grand success. Our customers are happy. They have bought goods cheap for cash; have saved money; had no big store bills to pay in the fall.

We have started out this year with a determination to Sell Goods on a still Lower Margin.

Small Profits and Quick Returns are profitable to both Buyer and Seller.

Our Goods will not Lie on the Shelf
IF PRICES WILL SELL THEM.

Thanking our many customers for the past year's patronage and trusting that fair dealing and low prices will merit a continuance of the same.

We are yours very truly,

J. C. HOLDEN.

CHAS. A. WARD, PRES. WM. HARTSUFF, VICE-PRES. JNO. W. PORTER, CASH.

Why I Am a Protectionist.

BY HON. T. H. DUDLEY, OF NEW JERSEY.

(Written for the American Economist.)

Because Protection promotes the prosperity and welfare of the country, by giving employment to labor and developing the resources of the nation. The more general the employment of the people, the larger the production, and the greater the production the cheaper the price of the commodities produced will be to the consumers who use them. Protection or self-preservation is a principle implanted by God upon all animated matter; and it is better, not only for the Nation itself, but for the people of the whole world, that such protection should be given to labor in each nation as will produce the same results in production in each separate country.

Receipt for a Good Town.

Grat. Vim. Snap. Push. Energy. Schools. Morality. Harmony. Cordiality. Advertising. Talk about it. Write about it. Speak well of it. Help to improve it. Advertise in its papers. Patronize its merchants. Good country tributary. Elect good men to office. Help all public enterprises. Honest competition in prices. Faith exhibited in good works. Loafers, croakers, and dead-beats. Let your object be the welfare, growth and promotion of your town and its people. Speak well of the public spirited men and also be one yourself. Be honest with all your fellowmen and pay the printer and your pew rent.

Parlez-Vous Francais.

If you don't, there certainly have been times when you wished that you could; and if you are anxious to learn to read and speak French, you should have the splendid article "French Without a Master," by Prof. A. de Loupmonet of Chateauguay University, published in Demorest's Family Magazine for February. With the definite and practical instructions given in it, one cannot fail to acquire an accurate knowledge of French in an astonishingly short time. But this is not the only attraction of this superb number of this typical Family Magazine. The numerous illustrations, including a lovely photomontage of "Cupid and Psyche," are simply splendid; the stories are of exceptional merit; "At the Home of a Florida 'Cracker'" handsomely illustrated, will interest everybody; "The Home of a Specialist," with numerous illustrations, furnishes practical and artistic ideas for building and furnishing a home; and "A Small Garden, and What It Produced" gives just the information needed by those who have little ground and yet like fresh vegetables. As usual, there is something in this number for everybody, and everything is of the best; and this number is only a sample of what is furnished twelve times a year; for $2. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th St., New York City.

Mothers and Daughters.

Over twelve years ago I was afflicted with a very serious female difficulty, and for the last sixteen months was under treatment of three of the best physicians that money could employ. Under their skillful treatment I gradually grew worse, until they decided they could render me no permanent help. One of my friends persuaded me to try a bottle of Dullam's Great German Uteric Tonic, and after taking three bottles, can say I am in better health than I have been for twenty years, and am now sixty years old but feel as young as thirty. $1 a bottle. June 2, '90. Mrs. THOS. TANDY, Flint, Mich.
